Product description:

High-quality crayons that have been accompanying children for generations. They are distinguished by exceptionally intense and saturated colors and excellent surface coverage. They are perfect for drawing, filling large surfaces and making soft transitions between colors. Bambino crayons are made of kaolin clay, which incomparably increases their usability in relation to candle, wax or pencil crayons. Each crayon has a protective paper wrapper with its own graphic (a different animal on each crayon). Bambino crayons are safe for children, their production takes place in Poland, in accordance with the Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council on the safety of toys and the ordinance of the Ministry of Economy on essential requirements for toys.
